

দশম শ্রেণি ● English ● অধ্যয়নভিত্তিক প্রশ্নের উত্তর ও পরীক্ষা প্রস্তুতি

● The Snail ● The Cat

❖ Choose the correct option (Marks-1)

1. The snail does not fear to-
a. Climb b. fall
c. Stick d. eat
Ans. b. fall
2. The cat stretches himself to check-
a. his muscles b. The boy with
c. the dog d. his kindred
Ans. a. his muscles
3. The snail seems to have grown together with his-
a. Car b. house
c. dress d. body
Ans. b. house
4. A snail sticks to-
a. Only grass b. only leaf
c. Only fruit or wall d. all of these places
Ans. d. all of these places
5. Inside his house the snail feels-
a. Protected b. insecure
c. Confused d. angry
Ans. a. Protected
6. At the time of danger, the snail-
a. sings b. eats
c. hides d. dances
Ans. c. hides
7. The danger of snail comes from-
a. animals b. little boys
c. diseases d. weather
Ans. d. weather
8. The snail hides himself at the time of –
a. danger b. pleasure
c. displeasure d. sorrow
Ans. a. danger
9. The snail shrinks when one touches its-
a. Tell b. body
c. Horn d. shell
Ans. c. Horn
10. The snail has the power of-
a. self-devotion b. self-destruction
c. self-collection d. self-denial
Ans. c. self-collection
11. when the snail's horn is touched the snail feels-
a. happy b. jealous
c. kingly d. annoyed
Ans. d. annoyed

❖ SAQ (Marks- 1)

1. When can the real nature of the cat be seen?
Ans. The real nature of the cat can be seen with the advent of evening.
2. When does the cat appear before the family members?
Ans. The cat appears before the family members when they sit down to have their evening tea.
3. Why does the cat appear before the family members at tea?
Ans. The cat appears before the family members at tea to get his share of food.
4. How does the cat make the family members feel his presence?
Ans. The cat makes his presence felt by purring noisily and rubbing himself against the legs of the family members.
5. Who is the cat particularly civil to?
The cat is particularly civil to the guest of the Ans. family.
6. Why is the cat particularly civil to the guest of the family?
Ans. The cat is particularly civil to the guest of the family because the guest is supposed to get the best of the foods offered.
7. What does the guest sometimes do instead of giving the cat some food?
Ans. Instead of giving some food, sometimes the guest stoops to caress him by stroking.
8. What does the cat do on getting tired of the strokes of the guest?
Ans. Being tired of the strokes of the guest the cat puts up his claw to rake the guest in the leg quietly but firmly.
9. What does the guest actually want to do to the cat on being raked in the leg?
Ans. The guest actually wants to kick the cat out of the window.
10. How does the guest suppress his true intention against the cat?
Ans. The guest suppresses his true intention by pretending to be very much amused.
11. How does a snail stick to a surface?
Ans. The snail sticks to a surface very closely.
12. What does the snail stick to?
Ans. The snail sticks to leaf, grass, fruit or wall.
13. Where does the snail stick to other than the wall?

12. With the touch on its horn the snail shrinks into his-

- a. hole b. nest
- c. room d. house

Ans. d. house

13. The snail dwells-

- a. with friends b. with family
- c. with cousins d. alone

Ans. d. alone

14. For a snail a storm is a matter of-

- a. blessing b. curse
- c. danger d. joy

Ans. c. danger

15. The only treasure of snail is –

- a. chattel b. himself
- c. his shell d. his horn

Ans. b. himself

16. Without having any wealth, the snail is –

- a. dissatisfied b. displeased
- c. contented d. sad

Ans. c. contented

17. For shrinking into his house with displeasure the snail needs –

- a. heavy touch b. lightest touch
- c. painful touch d. forceful touch

Ans. b. lightest touch

18. The snail hides for security when any danger –

- a. comes near b. is far away
- c. trouble him d. is not possible

Ans. a. comes near

19. The snail leads the life like –

- a. blind person b. king
- c. hermit d. beggar

Ans. c. hermit

20. According to most people, the cat is –

- a. timid b. ignorant
- c. angry d. fierce

Ans. b. ignorant

21. The cat is generally thought to be fond of –

- a. food and drink b. hard work
- c. exercise d. case

Ans. d. case

22. A cat gets from life a great deal of –

- a. mice and milk b. ease
- c. comfort d. satisfaction

Ans. d. satisfaction

23. According to the author, a cat is not a/an –

- a. athlete b. acrobat
- c. grim fighter d. unintelligent animal

Ans. d. unintelligent animal

24. The cat expects bit of food from

- a. the guest b. the children
- c. the family members d. all

Ans. a. the guest

25. The guest stoops to –

Ans. Other than the wall the snail sticks to leaf, grass or fruit.

14. What is the snail unafraid of?

Ans. The snail is unafraid of falling down.

15. How does a snail seem to grow?

Ans. It seems that the snail has grown together with his house.

16. What is meant by the 'house' of the snail?

Ans. The shell of the snail is meant by the house.

17. When does the snail hide in his house?

Ans. The snail hides in his house when he feels that danger is imminent.

18. How does the snail feel after hiding in his house?

Ans. After hiding into his house the snail feels secure.

19. What appears as danger to the snail?

Ans. The storm and other weather conditions seem to be dangers to the snail.

20. What shows the snail's collecting power?

Ans. The dangerous situation shows the snail's self-collecting power.

21. How does the snail feel when its horn is touched?

Ans. The snail feels displeased when its horn is touched.

22. What happens when the snail's horn is touched?

Ans. The snail shrinks into his house when his horn is touched.

23. What cause displeasure to the snail?

Ans. The slightest touch on its horn causes displeasure to the snail.

24. When does the snail shrink into his house?

Ans. The snail shrinks into his house when its horn is touched.

25. How does a snail dwell?

Ans. The snail dwells alone/like a hermit.

26. What is considered by snail as his treasure?

Ans. His own self is considered as treasure by the snail.

27. How does the snail feel in spite of having on wealth?

Ans. The snail feels well satisfied in spite of not having any wealth.

28. What is meant by the word 'chattel'?

Ans. 'Chattel' means wealth or property.

29. What does a snail do when he meets someone during meal?

Ans. The snail eats faster when he meets someone during meal.

30. What does the cat do on top of shed?

Ans. The cat arches his back and rakes his claws through the soft bark of the old roof.

- a. kick the cat b. stroke the cat
c. give the cat food d. scratch the cat

Ans. b. stroke the cat

26. With the strokes of the guest, the cat gets –

- a. pampered b. tired
c. elated d. sleepy

Ans. b. tired

27. The cat firmly rakes the guest at his –

- a. face b. head
c. leg d. knee

Ans. c. leg

28. On being raked in the leg, the guest actually wants to –

- a. give him food b. praise him
c. kick him d. go away

Ans. c. kick him

29. The cat's movement is compared to that of a-

- a. leopard b. lion
c. tiger d. panther

Ans. d. panther

30. The cats are changed from meek creatures into-

- a. timid ones b. grim fighters
c. dumb animals d. fierce ones

Ans. b. grim fighters

❖ Grammar

✓ Article and Prepositions

✓ Transformation of sentences (simple, complex, compound, affirmative, negative, exclamatory, interrogative, assertive)

✓ Voice Change (all tense)

✓ Narration Change (Assertive, Interrogative, Imperative)

❖ Writing skills:

1. Story writing

2. Dialogue

