

নবম শ্রেণি ● English ● অধ্যয়নভিত্তিক প্রশ্নের উত্তর ও পরীক্ষা প্রভৃতি

● The North Ship ● The Price of Bananas

❖ Choose the correct option (Marks-1)

- The number of sailing by was-
a. three b. two
c. five d. four Ans : a. three
- The wild carried the first ship to a-
a. big country b. small country
c. rich country d. distant country
Ans : c. rich country
- The second ship turned the-
a. west b. north
c. south d. east
Ans : d. east
- The decks of the third ship shone-
a. brightly b. frostily
c. clearly d. dimly
Ans : b. frostily
- The northern sky rose over the-
a. unfruitful sea b. kind sea
c. stormy sea d. calm sea
Ans : a. unfruitful sea
- The third ship was rigged for a-
a. long journey b. short journey
c. slow journey d. quick journey
Ans : a. long journey
- The wind rose in the-
a. morning b. evening
c. afternoon d. east
Ans : a. morning
- The word 'rigged' means-
a. to equip for a long journey
b. to destroy people
c. to stop to unscrupulous means
d. to solve a problem
Ans : a. to equip for a long journey
- For the first ship, the sea was-
a. unfruitful b. dark
c. raised d. running
Ans : d. running
- The first ship reached-
a. in confinement
b. prosperous destination
c. sea
d. an anchor
Ans : b. prosperous destination
- The gentleman's face was covered with-
a. Shame b. embarrassment
c. beams of delight d. sweat

❖ SAQ (Marks- 1)

- What does the poet observe in the first line of the extract?
Ans : In the first line of the extract, the poet observes three ships that go sailing by.
- How is the sea described in the above extract?
Ans : The sea is described as "lifting" in the first line and is implied to be dynamic in the second line.
- What significant event happens with the wind in the extract?
Ans : The wind rises in the morning sky.
- What can be inferred about the first ship's journey?
Ans : The first ship is rigged for a long journey, suggesting it is prepared for a significant voyage.
- Which direction does the first ship head towards?
Ans : The first ship turns towards the west.
- How is the sea described for the second ship?
Ans : The sea is described as "quaking."
- What is the fate of the second ship?
Ans : The second ship is pursued by the wind and ends up anchored in captivity.
- What imagery is used to describe the wind's action on the second ship?
Ans : The wind is described as hunting the ship "like a beast."
- How does the poet convey the concept of captivity in this extract?
Ans : The poet uses the phrase "anchor in captivity" to suggest the ship's entrapment.
- Which direction is the third ship heading?
Ans : The third ship is heading towards the north.
- Where did the young monkeys sit?
Ans : The young monkeys sat on the boughs of the neem and tamarind tree.
- What did the monkey do to the loin cloth of the pious person?
Ans : The monkeys snatched away the loin cloth of the pious person while he was bathing.

24. How was the sea-

- a. quaking
- b. quick
- c. lazy
- d. slow

Ans : a. quaking

25. Who hunted?

- a. wall
- b. wind
- c. William
- d. Elizabeth

Ans : b. wind

26. who sat-

- a. poet
- b. lion
- c. monkey
- d. Dhoni

Ans : c. monkey

27. what was announced?

- a. Train
- b. bus
- c. lorry
- d. dumper

Ans : a. Train

28. The writer got ----- seat-

- a. door
- b. shore
- c. window
- d. long

Ans : c. window

29. Which cloth is mentioned here?

- a. kurta
- b. pajama
- c. Khazama
- d. loin

Ans : d. loin

30. The trunk was-

- a. small
- b. big
- c. poor
- d. dumped

Ans : b. big

29. What did the author watch sitting on a bench?

Ans: Sitting on a bench, the author watched the monkeys frolicking on the trees and on the open platform.

30. Why did the monkeys descend now and then?

Ans: The monkeys descended now and then to collect half -sucked mango stones and the remainders of food from the platform.

❖ All Grammars

❖ Writing skill

1. Write a report on the effect of devastating flood.

2. Write a report on the effect of devastating storm.

